Métis Nation British Columbia

2026 BY-ELECTION NOTICE UPDATE

Public Notice is hereby given to all Métis Citizens of the Métis Nation British Columbia that a By-Election will be held August 22, 2026, to fill the President position, pursuant to and in accordance with the MNBC Electoral Act (2025).

PLEASE BE ADVISED THAT ELIGIBLE VOTERS MAY CAST THEIR BALLOT ELECTRONICALLY OR BY MAIL. YOU MAY RETURN YOUR MAIL-IN BALLOT PACKAGE BY MAIL OR IN PERSON TO THE CHIEF ELECTORAL OFFICER. YOU MAY VOTE ONLY ONCE BY ANY POLLING OPTION.

ELECTRONIC VOTING OPENS AUGUST 8, 2026

If you wish to vote online, please visit www.onefeather.ca/nations/mnbc and follow the instructions provided. If you are using OneFeather for the first time, please have the following information readily available to verify your identity and create your eligible voter profile: personal email address, date of birth, MNBC Citizenship number. You can create your eligible voter profile anytime and will receive additional voting instructions and your PIN to vote online when online voting opens on August 8, 2026, at 8:00 am PT.

Mail-In Ballots will be mailed no later than August 7, 2026, to eligible voters for whom a current mailing address is known. It may take several days for these voting packages to reach voters – however, if you have not received your Mail-In Ballot voting package by August 14, 2026, please contact the Chief Electoral Officer immediately. Completed Mail-In Ballot packages must be returned and in the possession of the Chief Electoral Officer no later than 8:00 pm PT on August 22, 2026. Mail-In Ballots received after the close of Polls shall not be counted or recorded.
