PLEASE NOTE THAT THESE TOWNHALL MEETINGS WILL BE HELD ONLINE ONLY.

Virtual townhall meetings will be held for Candidates to introduce themselves and respond to questions from electors. These townhalls will be structured and moderated. Candidates are not required to attend.

Townhall Protocol:

- Candidates and attendees should arrive in the Zoom meeting 15 minutes before the start time.
- Electors can submit questions in advance to voterhelp@onefeather.ca
- Electors can also ask questions in the Zoom Chat, and the Moderator will pose the questions to the Candidates.
- Questions should be concise and focused on issues relevant to the election.
- All participants must adhere to a respectful and professional demeanor. Personal attacks or disruptive behavior will not be tolerated and may result in removal from the meeting.
- Each townhall will be recorded and within 24 hours made available online for viewing.

For more information or any assistance please contact the Chief Electoral Officer (contact information is noted at the top of this document).

Dated this 16th day of July 2026.
